

Members of the Franklin County Junior Leadership Class of 2021

Junior Leadership Program

Each year the Franklin County Chamber of Commerce sponsors the Junior Leadership Program. This program consists of juniors from the six high schools located in Franklin County.

Each member serves Franklin County while representing their high school in this ten-month program. These young adults learn to be leaders, while discovering what the county has to offer and gaining lifelong friendships.

Watermelon Festival

The annual Watermelon Festival is sponsored by the Franklin County Chamber of Commerce.

It began in 1981 and continues to grow each year. The Chamber strives for the perfect mix of vendors and entertainment to please the large attendance of over 35,000 people.

Annual Partnership Banquet

The Franklin County Chamber of Commerce and the Franklin County Development Authority partners for this annual banquet to honor Franklin County's citizens and their achievements.

Franklin County Speakers' Bureau

Being the BRIDGE between business, industry, and our school systems, the Chamber can provide a list of speakers to share their stories, information, and knowledge with civic groups.

About Us

The first President of the Russellville/Franklin County Chamber of Commerce was C. W. James in 1941. On November 27, 1989, the Certificate of Registration for the Certificate of Incorporation of the Chamber of Commerce, Russellville-Franklin County, was recorded.

What is the Franklin County Chamber of Commerce?

The Franklin County Chamber of Commerce is an organization of businesses and professional men and women, as well as other interested members of the community, who have joined together to work for the solution of their mutual business and community challenges and the realization of their mutual business and community opportunities.

What are the BENEFITS of becoming a Member of the Franklin County Chamber of Commerce?

First, a "seal of approval"!

Becoming a Chamber Member broadens awareness of your business or organization in Franklin County. The association and affiliation with the Chamber of Commerce further legitimizes any member, for profit or non-profit, as it signifies an interest in the community.

Second, an incredible connection with the community.

Being a Chamber Member comes with opportunities to give back in Franklin County. There are numerous ways to give: through county festivals, area events, and the Junior Leadership Program.

Third, builds local economy!

The Chamber of Commerce refers our members first when a special service or product is needed. We strive to keep the community buying local to support our cities, towns, and communities.
