Be prepared for your assigned outlet to be at least 50 feet from your booth.

No refunds will be issued once your application has been processed. A written request for cancellation received by July 15, 2022 will be accepted for a 50% refund. Exhibitors are responsible for any and all taxes and fees associated with their activities at the festival. This includes but is not limited to license fees, and federal, state and local taxes. The festival will go on RAIN OR SHINE. There will be no refunds of any kind for last minute cancellations due to the weather. Please plan accordingly.

No outside ice. All ice will be available to purchase from an onsite vendor (Parked at 1st Baptist Church gazebo).

Coke products are exclusively sold at the Festival. All Coke products will be purchased on site from a Coca-Cola representative. No other colas will be allowed. Water may NOT be given away.

FOOD vendors will be responsible for knowing and abiding by all local health department rules and regulations. Food application and fees are required from the Franklin County Health Department, 801 Highway 48, Russellville, AL 35654, (Phone 256-332-2700, speak with Summer Beard or Matthew Warner). Health Department application and fee must be obtained by July 15, 2022 to participate in the 2022 Watermelon Festival. Failure to obtain your application and pay fee by July 15, 2022, may result in forfeiting your booth space and booth money. AFTER you have been notified by the Franklin County Chamber of your acceptance as a food vendor for the Watermelon Festival, you will be mailed the appropriate documentation for Health Department approval.

FOOD vendors will not be provided a water source.

FOOD vendors must meet all state & local NFPA & International Fire codes! Call Alabama Fire Marshals at 334-241-4166 for more information or email Russellville Fire Marshal Justin Green at firemarshalrfd@gmail.com. Fire Marshal Green will inspect Friday & Saturday.

Service animals are welcome. However, pets are not allowed unless purchased at the Watermelon Festival and kept in specified containers.

All vendors are to submit a detailed list of items to be sold. No one vendor is guaranteed the right to sell specific items.

If the festival must be cancelled for reasons out of organizer's control (i.e. weather, government imposed regulations, viruses and pandemics, etc.), full refunds will not be issued due to already incurred expenses on organizer's behalf as advertising and promotion, permits and licenses, venue rental fees, etc. However, in special cases such as the COVID-19 pandemic, we will issue a partial refund to vendors who have paid in full.

All vendors will be responsible for securing items that may be a tripping hazard on all pedestrian and traffic areas (electrical cords, extension cords, ropes/chains used to secure any items associated with your booth).

Vendors using gaseous tanks of any kind must have them secured so they do not fall.

I agree to abide by the decision of the sponsors to accept or reject our application. The undersigned does hereby and forever discharge the Franklin County Chamber of Commerce, the City of Russellville, and all affiliates from all manner of suit, damages, and claims and demands whatsoever in law or equity from loss and damage to the undersigned's property while in possession, supervision or auspices of the above-named agents, representatives, or employees. The undersigned will comply with the rules, regulations, deposits, and donation arrangements as set forth in the stipulations for participants. The Franklin County Chamber of Commerce reserves the right to refuse any application and will fully refund the monies paid in case of refusal.
